International contacts have been initiated during the Garlando-WCS in Vienna

During the World Championships in Vienna (Austria) which took place from the 11. – 17. of August 2003, Jean Pierre Pirlet and Mat Koussen have been able to present during several meetings the future plans of EUTSA to many association presidents, manufacturers and organisers from several countries as e.g. the USA, Spain, Hungary, Czech Republic, Switzerland, Poland, Germany ...

With the next newsletter some very positive news resulting from these meetings and new contacts will be communicated.

The United Kingdom becomes a new member of EUTSA with an A-licence

The British Foosball Association (BFA) has accepted the EUTSA membership and becomes an A-licence holder.

In order to communicate any EUTSA news in english, the BFA will publish EUTSA newsletters on their website: www.britfoos.com

Boris Atha, Secretary of the BFA, has agreed to become chairman of the 'Ranking Commission' in the EUTSA team.

The chairman of the BFA, Richard Thomson, becomes a member of the 'EUTSA Executive Sports Committee'.

The 17 years old Rob Atha, most probably the best young player of Europe, will support the EUTSA-youthprogram .

Diane Blackwell becomes a member of the 'EUTSA Women Players Team'.

In cooperation with the BFA, other countries like Scotland, Wales and Ireland may also join EUTSA and become new licence holders.

Currently EUTSA has 20 licence holders from the following countries:

Germany, Belgium, Switzerland, Luxembourg, Netherlands, United Kingdom, Italy and Austria.
